

Precision Conservation Management

Monday, March 27th 5:00 pm Village Hall – Homer, IL

5:00 – Clay Bess (Conservation Specialist) welcoming remarks, PCM Update

5:15 – Dave Cronk (AQUA) Lake Vermilion trends, relationship with Nitrogen

5:55 – Catered Dinner by Lee's Famous Recipe of Danville

6:20 – Dale Lattz (farmdoc, U of I) Financial future/economic potential of PCM

7:00 – Adjourn

Time will be provided at the end of each presentation for questions/discussion

RSVP to Clay Bess at 309-445-0278 or cbess@precisionconservation.org
Plus-one policy, limited number of seats available, dinner provided free of charge
If a disability request or dietary/allergy specification needs to be accounted for, please inform Clay Bess during the time of RSVP. The USDA is an equal opportunity provider.